

*I/V Lynette Wachterhauser 10-08-09 Surak #5742,

On 10/08/09 I spoke to Lynette Wachterhauser at the Angel Valley Retreat. She stated that she had participated in the "vision quest". Lynette said this was the first time she had participated in a sweat lodge.

I asked her what happened in the sweat lodge and she stated she only stayed in for 2 rounds because she could not handle it. She sat out and watched everything, and she witnessed Caci come out. She stated that as it went on and more rounds went by the sicker people were, coming out. She said that toward the end, as people were coming out, she asked if she could go clean up and get dress because she was cold. She did go and as she was walking to her tent she heard someone yell call 911. She stated that when people were coming out they were running cold water over them. I asked her why she came out after only 2 rounds. She said that she was done; that she has high blood pressure, and she was not going to endanger her health. I advised her that I had been told that it was a little warm in the lodge and she responded with "it was hot as hell". When asked if she knew the decedents she stated only from the retreat. She stated that she was never made to do anything they did not want to do.

End of Interview.
